ONLINE CIRCLE

Hi Beloved Souls, I'm Cee Cee, your guide and host for the Soul Connect online community.

Welcome! It is so great to connect with all of you.

Where ever you find yourself in the world, I invite you to join a community of awakened souls, a sacred circle - Soul Connect.

The mass awakening of our Ascension, to the re-evolution of humanity, has exploded in the last few years. World events trigger more souls to wake up. The collective consciousness is rising faster than it ever has.

However, we are all missing soul connections.

Fragments remain from ourselves, our societies, our jobs, and our families. The disconnect is on a soul level. It has just been a circumstance and a reaction to the world we are living in now.

ABOUT THE STAR OF AVYON

At Star of Avyon, Claire is a Multi-Dimensional Healer / Channeler and shares her knowledge and abilities with her years of training in Energy Healing and Alternative Holistic Therapies and is passionate about healing that supports the body, mind, soul, and spirit, whether that is in wellness mentoring or spiritual development.

A rebellious old soul that has travelled with her through numerous lifetimes gifts her with knowledge of spiritual and metaphysical matters that are not of this earth, together with her firm belief that the wisdom she has gained through her own life experiences, some traumatic, is relatable to many. Sharing this with the collective consciousness of all ages from young children to teens and adults.

Her therapies are built on a methodology that focuses on responding to what is happening to you in the now with a clear path of resolution. By also acknowledging the past and how you came to be, bringing them together to create a new path to move forward towards incorporating her simple one-step approach for her clients.

Her developed intuition and inner knowing make it easy for her to problem-solve spiritual and therapeutic issues that awakened souls are facing today. After an awakening, many experience loneliness and isolation, while others struggle to "get them" or understand their psychic gifts and abilities.

She views spirituality in a grounded and practical way, blending with the holistic healing and wellness industry, teaching and guiding the collective that is not quite traditional, a little bit woo-woo, while still complementary to Western medicine when needed.

Claire believes that this life is ever-evolving, a journey in which she experiments with what works and what does not work is the wisdom she gains through trial and error is the key to helping her continue the re-evolution of the collective consciousness through her soul-led work.

Claire trusts in her intuition and inner knowing when connecting with clients. She teaches, mentors, and guides them on their spiritual journeys while living daily as multi-dimensional beings.

Claire currently offers one-on-one sessions distance via Zoom or phone. Each session is powerful and transforming. A time for the soul to speak while dedicating space for the healing to unfold, with support for the body, mind, and spirit and reconnecting you to your divine being, You.

Why I Created Soul Connect

I had my spiritual awakening almost eight years ago. I was lucky enough to find a community. But, since the pandemic, I have experienced trauma and loss that has resulted in losing many friends, family, and connections. I found myself no longer in a community I could be myself around.

The gift from the loss I endured became the sole reason I wanted to build a new community Soul Connect emerged. For this and many other reasons.

For an awakened soul, life will never be the same. We are not the same yesterday, last week, last month, or last year.

Our inner light, our soul, is the compass of our Ascension and re-evolution. We are all searching for more. Remembering who we are, no longer holding on to who has been as we release what no longer serves us. The soul wants to find its way back home.

It is not that we are lost. It is searching for a home because that is where we seek to belong. Knowing that we are linked together etherically drives us further to reconnect with others more than just superficially. And we want that feeling of belonging with other people who are also awake. Those that get us to understand ourselves and see the world the way we see it.

Esoteric and Metaphysical, galactic beings, elementals, arch angels, spirits, and souls of those passed on, and many other topics of this kind light us up. I created this group so we can talk freely about this without censorship or judgment from others.

Many of us can sense, see or feel beyond our senses. Others think we are crazy. But in the 3rd Dimension, this is how those of that frequency see us, as souls drifting along multi-dimensionally.

Come join me in co-creating a new earth, teaching, supporting, and guiding each other.

Sense of Belonging

This circle will be a safe space to leave our concerns. Talk through issues or as we offload our ascension symptoms.

I ask that you post your questions in the group, no question will be too crazy out there, or too "woo-woo". When we share our experiences, it is likely someone else may be experiencing what you are but has no idea you are feeling the same.

I believe by creating this circle, is how we evolve from "telling" others they should do things, to teaching and guiding others. Inviting togetherness, dissolving separation.

I encourage you to share this group with anyone you believe is aligned with this community.

This circle will also be a space to celebrate our uniqueness and the many gifts we hold.

I hope Soul Connect will become a space where we all can learn about each other and more about ourselves.

A sanctuary where you are supported and seen for who you are.
